If you have held an equivalent registration under the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014 or the repealed Property Agents and Motor Dealers Act 2000, list the registration details in Part 4.

Part 5—Suitability checklist

An applicant is not a suitable person to hold a registration certificate if the individual:

- has been convicted of a serious offence within the last five years in Queensland or elsewhere
- is currently disqualified from holding a licence or registration certificate
- is subject to a relevant control order.

While an applicant is automatically deemed not suitable to hold a registration certificate if they answer yes to any of the above, there are also a number of other matters which must be considered when determining suitability. If you answer yes to any of the suitability questions listed on the application form, please provide full details in writing.

If you are currently insolvent under administration, you will need to supply the following information to allow a determination to be made on your suitability:

- A description of the circumstances that caused you to go into bankruptcy (if you were involved in a business please advise the type of business) and a description of the steps taken by you to avoid going into bankruptcy.
- Official notification of the insolvency including a list of creditors and amounts owing to each creditor.
- Confirmation of whether any charges were laid against you in regard to the bankruptcy.
- A letter from your employer outlining your role within the business. The letter must be written on business letterhead and signed by a director or the licensed person in charge. In accordance with section 158(1)(g) (iii) of the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014, the letter should specify whether you would be 'in a position to influence significantly the management of the licensee's business'.

Relevant Acts include the Motor Dealers and Chattel Auctioneers Act 2014, the Property Occupations Act 2014, the Debt Collectors (Field Agents and Collection Agents) Act 2014, the repealed Property Agents and Motor Dealers Act 2000 or a corresponding law.

'insolvent under administration' has the meaning as defined in the Corporations Act 2001, section 9.

The Corporations Act 2001 defines insolvent under administration as:

1. a person who, under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 or the law of a foreign country has the status of an undischarged bankrupt; or
2. a person who, under the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country, has the status of an undischarged bankrupt; or
3. A person whose property is subject to control under:
 - a. Section 50 or Division 2 of Part X of the Bankruptcy Act 1966; or
 - b. A corresponding provision of the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country; or
4. A person who has executed a personal insolvency agreement under:
 - a. Part X of the Bankruptcy Act 1966; or
 - b. The corresponding provisions of the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country; Where the terms of the agreement have not been fully complied with; or

5. A person who is a party (as a debtor) to a debt agreement under:

- a. Part IX of the Bankruptcy Act 1966; or
- b. The corresponding provisions of the law of an external Territory or the law of a foreign country.

‘serious offence’ means any of the following offences punishable by three or more years imprisonment:

- an offence involving fraud or dishonesty
- an offence involving the trafficking of drugs
- an offence involving the use or threatened use of violence
- an offence of a sexual nature
- extortion
- arson
- unlawful stalking.
- an offence against the Criminal Code, section 76 (Recruiting person to become participant in criminal organisation)
- an offence mentioned in the Criminal Code, part 2, chapter 9A (Consorting); or
- an offence that is –
 - a prescribed offence within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161N; and
 - committed with a serious organised crime circumstance of aggravation within the meaning of the Penalties and Sentences Act 1992, section 161Q

The fact that a sentence for one of the offences was less than three years does not lessen the applicant’s responsibility for disclosure. If in doubt answer ‘Yes’ and provide written details of the conviction. It is an offence to provide incorrect or misleading information.

‘conviction’ includes a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court, but does not include a plea of guilty or a finding of guilt by a court if no conviction is recorded by the court.

‘corresponding law’ means a law of another State, Territory or New Zealand that provides for the same matter as a relevant Act or a provision of a relevant Act.

If you are uncertain about any of the above, you can contact the Office of Fair Trading on 13 QGOV (13 74 68) for information and assistance.

Lodgement details

Please ensure your application is fully completed and you have attached proof of identification documents, training certificates, fees and attachments as required. If any details or fees are missing or incomplete our office will be required to write to you which delays the processing of your application and the issue of your registration certificate. If no response is received from you within a reasonable timeframe, your application may be deemed to have been withdrawn by you. In this circumstance a refund of fees paid less the application fee and criminal history check fees (if the checks have been conducted) will be refunded to you. You will then need to resubmit another application if you still require the registration certificate.

Application approval

Normal processing time for new applications is 4–6 weeks however this can be longer if we need to contact you for missing information or fees. Applications can sometimes be delayed awaiting clearance of police checks which is outside the control of the Office of Fair Trading. If your application is refused we will send an information notice to you explaining your rights and the process involved in appealing the decision.

You are not able to perform the functions of a motor salesperson until your registration certificate has been issued.

Refunds

You can withdraw your application at any time prior to the registration certificate being granted or refused. If the application is withdrawn by you or deemed withdrawn or refused you will receive a refund of the fees paid less a non-refundable application processing fee and any fees paid for criminal history checks that have already been conducted.
